No Lives Lost.

Tallulah, La., April 14.—No lives have been lost in this vicinity, but many people are homeless, and the suffering will be intense among the poorest of these, most of whom are negroes, if assistance is not immediately forthcoming. The railrad tracks here to-night are lined with negro women and children, already driven from their homes. To-night the water broke through the roadbed of the Vicksburg, Shreveport and Pacific, one and one-half miles west of Tallulah, and train service between here and Mouroe was temporarily, abandoned.

Let the flood waters break through

Lf the flood waters break through the hurried levee now being construct-ed along the Iron Mountain Railroad tracks and the Vicksburg, Shreveport and Pacific, the entire town will be inundated.

Including negro refugees, who reached here last night and to-day from the flooded arra north of Tallulah, there are about 500 persons here. In the midst of the fight against the high waters to-day, fire broke cut in a local hotel, and for a while it looked as if a section of the town thus far saved from the floods would be licked up by flames. However, the fire was soon under control.

Vicksburg, April 14.—Plans for an immense concentration camp for refugees from the flooded territory in this vicinity were formulated here tonight at a mass-meeting of citizens. It is anticipated that thousands of persons, driven from their homes by the flood, will be cared for. Preparations are under way to extend aid and supply necessities to this number of people for six weeks, by which time it is believed that the inundated area will be habitable.

With the idea in view of offering im-mediate succor, a fleet of boats will be dispatched to-morrow into the in-undated territory, equipped with ra-tions, medicine and other supplies. Reports received from the breaks in the levee at Panther Forest, Ark. and Salem, La. state that the crevasses are widening rapidly and a vast amount of water is pouring over the already submerged land. No additional breaks were reported in this vicinity to-day.

Church Floor Gives Way, Killing Two

Harrington Park, N. J., April 14.—
Two persons were killed and more than a score injured, several seriously, when the collapse of the floor of the Church of Our Lady of Victory precipitated nearly 300 persons into the basement late to-day. The church was only partly completed. Collapse of the floor came while an address was being delivered by Father Delanty, paster of the church. Suddenly the floor was heard to ereak, and then it went down with a crush. Men, women and children were eaught in the avalanche, and many were badly crushed.

Lord Hyde and Family Take Up Residence on Canadian Farm.

BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY,

Wo or three months ago I mentioned in these letters that Lord Hyde, the son and heir of the Earl of Clarendon, had decided to make his principal home in Canada. He arrived in New York last week on the steamship Olympic, with his wife and two little children, intending, after a few days' stay in the metropolis, to go out to their farm of 297 acres, in Pickering, twenty miles from Toronto. Lady Hyde was born in 1886, as the daughter of Herbert Haldane Somers, of the Coidstream Guards, and is the sister of the present and sixth Baron Somera, Lord
and Lady Hyde have two children, namely, George Herbert Arthur Edward Hyde, who is nearly six years old, and a little girl, Nina Joan Edith Virginia, just turned three, Lady Hyde speaks very enthusiastically of her intended life in Canada, as a farmer's wife, doing her own house cleaning, cooking, washing and Ironing, while her husband labors in the fields and gains the necessary experience and vantageously increase his holdings in Canada. But they do not intend to agricultural skill to enable tim to advantageously increase his holdings in Canada. But they do not intend to spend all their time in Canada. They contemplate going back to England in the winter, putting their little boy to school there. The present Led Clarendon, to whose title Lord Hyde is the next heir, is a man of about sixty-six, who, two years ago, married the rich widow of the Hon. Edward Burke, and has two country places in England, one the ruined castio of Kenilworth and the other situated at Watford, not far from London. An ount of Lord Hyde was the wife of that Lord Stanley of Preston, who was Governor-General of Canada and who died as sixteenth Earl of Derby.

foolish, for Ross Winans possesses a fortune estimated at some $30,000,000, and up to the time of his daughter's death thought very highly of his son-in-law, who would doubtless have bencefited extensively under his will.

As soon as his numerous French creditors heard that De Bearn had at length been awarded entire possession of the trust fund that had been formed for his wife at the time of her marriage they commenced proceedings to recover the amount of their bills, and having obtained judgment against De Beart, are now attaching all his property in Maryland, which he left invested there on account of the excellence of the securities. Had he allowed the entire estate to remain in trust it would have been secure from his creditors and he would not have allenated the good will and even affection of his multimillionaire Baltimore father-in-law.

Count Henri de Bearn, as I have on several occasions pointed out in these letters, especially when he was attached to the French embassy here, is not a French prince and has no right to style himself "Prince" de Bearn. His princely title is that of Prince de Challais, and it comes to him by patent from the King of Spain by readed the french government to use the title of Prince de Challais, and it comes to him by patent from the King of Spain by readed to the fact that his mother, Cecil de Talleyrand-Perigord, was Spanish Princess de Challais, in his own right Nor has he received any sanction of the French government to use the title of Prince de Challais, much less that of Prince de Challais, much less that of Prince de Challais, and it non france. His only French title is that of come, and it dates from the lime of the first Napoleon. His patronymic is De Galard, and he is a De Bearn only on the distaft side.

The Board of Supervisors of Prince Edward, at its meeting held Friday, voted unanimously to have the wooden bridge over Big Buffalo River replaced with a steel and concrote structure. This bridge is 365 feet long, built entirely of wood, and has cost the county for construction and maintenance over $2,000 in the past seven years.

The county officials contemplate much improvement in the public roads during the present year. A tenton roller and a completa outfit will be purchased and work commenced and prosecuted continuously until the red clay highways are no more.

Richard Messer, the santtary engineer from the State Board of Health, has visited Farmville and made some important suggestions to the local Board of Health and other town officials. In a letter received from Mr. Messer since h's visit to Farmville he says the filtered water used by the town is as clear as any he has seen in his inspections.
